Spotlight on: EU-funded ENCCA project (the European Network for Cancer Research in Children and Adolescents – www.encca.eu ) and achievements reached so far, such as the creation of the Parent-Patient Advocacy Committee (PPAC), the largest osteosarcoma study ever performed, advances on the creation of a 'Virtual Institute' and the 'Teenage and Young Adult' session taking place soon in London, in association with the Teenage Cancer Trust in the UK.

You can read the full article in Cancer World.