Join us for the 2012 Political Roundtable and Scientific Conference within the European Week Against Cancer in Rome, Italy, between 31th May and 1st June! Delegates from many different countries, including Special Guests, Prof. Umberto Veronesi (European Institute of Oncology) and Mr. Mario Pescante (Vice-President of the International Olympic Committee), will discuss Tobacco Control, Screening and Healthier Lifestyles, giving you insights into current political thinking and scientific developments in cancer prevention and control.
The Conference will be hosted by the Italian Cancer League (LILT) and be held at the Italian Ministry of Health. The Official conference languages will be English and Italian. The Political Roundtable is scheduled for 31 May 2012: 13:00 to 18:00 and the Scientific Conference for 1 June: 9:00 to 16:00.

The Preliminary Programme is available here .
The registration form * and list of hotels can be found at http://www.weekagainstcancer.eu.

*Registration is necessary for venue security purposes.