Oncology Nurses and Nurse Managers to participate in a two days workshop on Implementation of Clinical Guidelines in Symptom Management.

Following the adaptation of Putting Evidence to Practice (PEP) guidelines developed by ONS (USA) to European practice in five symptoms by European Oncology Nursing Experts, the Brussels workshop will focus on implementation. Participants of this workshop will share best practices and will be piloting the new guidelines in practice. More information can be found on the EONS website .