

The EU FP7 project ECNIS2 ("Towards the establishment of a virtual European Centre for Research and Education on Cancer, Environment and Food - ECRECEF") is a follow-up of the FP6 Network of Excellence ECNIS (Environmental Cancer risk, Nutrition and Individual Susceptibility) and has as its aim to promote the durable integration of European research in the area of environmental carcinogenesis. More Information related to the project can be found here